Let me be honest here . . . when I am re-elected (and I will be 'cuz Russian hackers in Israel have already pre-programmed all the voting machines), I will fire that religious nutjob loser Pence and replace him with Jerod Kushner. Together we will reshape the world by, first, erasing Persia off the face of the Earth, and second, by taking those God-less commies in China down a few pegs. That will set the table for Jerod to win both the Republican nomination and the election itself in 2024. He will then finish what I started, and together with my Russian friends, will unify the planet into a glorious United States of Earth, while I smile down on them from my cloud perch in God's Heaven.
